Appropriation Period: 2005-07 Activity Version: Governor Gregoire's 05-07 Proposal

Agency: 227 - Wa St Criminal Justice Train Comm

The Corrections Division provides state-mandated, initial entry-level training for new institutional and community corrections workers for state, county, and local jurisdictions. Training is intended for personnel who provide for the custody, safety, and security of adult and juvenile prisoners in jails, penal institutions, and detention facilities, as well as for personnel who manage cases of offenders in the community on probation or parole. Approximately 1,000 students are trained annually in the Correction Officer, Adult Services, Juvenile Security Workers, Juvenile Services, and Work Release Academies. This training is mandated by state law to meet minimum essential initial training for persons contributing to public safety by dealing properly with offenders in custody or in the community.

Statewide Result Area: Improve the safety of people and property

Management Support for Public Law Enforcement Agencies

State funding is provided to the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, an organization that addresses common problems involved in the delivery of executive and management services to public law enforcement agencies, for the Uniform Crime Reporting Section. This section is responsible for four major statistical projects: Uniform Crime Reporting, Incident Based Reporting, Hate/Bias Crime Reporting, and Domestic Violence Reporting. Databases are maintained to record information on various crimes and used to provide statistical reports to the criminal justice community, Legislature, media, researchers, students, and private citizens. These databases also assist law enforcement as an investigative tool. WASPC is required to act as the permanent repository of records of investigative reports prepared by all law enforcement agencies in the state pertaining to sex offenders or sexually violent offenses. Funding is also provided to WASPC for a project in which maps of schools will be available electronically to emergency services personnel. By maintaining various databases and records, WASPC provides valuable information to enhance public safety.

Statewide Result Area: Improve the safety of people and property

Category: Support crime investigation

Professional Development

The Division of Professional Development is responsible for developing and administering training for first-level supervision, middle management, and executive management personnel in law enforcement and state and local corrections. These requirements are mandated by state law and must be completed within the allotted timelines as a condition of maintaining a specific rank. It is critical that law enforcement and corrections supervisors, managers, and executives receive training after basic academy training. Instruction on domestic violence and sexual assault investigation, regional training, methamphetamine investigation, and training to coroners, and defense and municipal attorneys is also provided. The Professional Development Division also manages the responsibilities of Quality Standards and Certification/Decertification.
